

Stone Mountain Park Hosts Lunar New Year Festival featuring Dragon and Lion Dances, Drone and Light Show

STONE MOUNTAIN, Ga. – Stone Mountain Park’s third annual Lunar New Year Festival will celebrate the Year of the Snake. This Asian-inspired festival pays tribute to the culture and New Year traditions of Korean, Chinese, Vietnamese, and other countries that follow the lunar calendar. It features a special Lunar New Year Drone and Light Show, a parade with lighted floats and dragon and lion dance teams, cultural craft activities, live entertainment, and other cultural elements. The festival will occur January 25 – 26, February 1-2, and 8-9.

Guests will experience traditional dance, cultural music, educational craft activations, dragon and lion dance teams, signature foods, beautiful décor, and much more.

Learn calligraphy, yo-yo demonstrations, paper art, knot tying, and more cultural activities from certified instructors from the Chinese Cultural School of Atlanta. Pose for pictures with ambassadors dressed in cultural dress and stationary backdrops throughout the event. Visit the Lighted Reflection Walk-Way to offer well wishes and prayers for a prosperous new year.

Close out the evening with a festive Drone Show featuring 250 color-changing drones creating amazing aerial formations while synced to music. Immediately following the drone show is the massive Lunar New Year Light Show projecting images on the mountain along with immersive lights, special effects, and a fireworks finale.

For tickets and information, please visit www.stonemountainpark.com

Listed in Frommer’s 500 Places to Visit with Your Kids Before They Grow Up and cited by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution as one of “35 Natural Wonders in Georgia You Must See Before You Die,” Stone Mountain Park is located 15 miles east of downtown Atlanta. For more information, visit www.stonemountainpark.com, or follow on Facebook and Instagram for updates.